

PROFESSIONAL QUALIFICATIONS

CHRIS HALL
VICE PRESIDENT – 2002 TO PRESENT
ATLANTA, GEORGIA

EXPERIENCE

Chris joined Haddow & Company in May, 2002. He has worked on a wide variety of real estate assignments, ranging from feasibility and highest and best use studies to the marketing and disposition of land and investment properties. Prior to Haddow & Company, Mr. Hall worked as an urban planner for Looney Ricks Kiss architects and with the City of Nashville, Tennessee.

Chris received an undergraduate degree from Kenyon College and master's degrees in city planning and real estate from the University of Texas at Austin and Georgia State University, respectively. Mr. Hall is a licensed real estate broker in Georgia and is a member of the Urban Land Institute, where he participates in the Atlanta Chapter's Technical Assistance Program which provides services to local governments and non-profits.

PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES

Member: Urban Land Institute

Atlanta Commercial Board of REALTORS

Licenses: Real Estate Broker, State of Georgia

Awards: Outstanding Professional Report
University of Texas School of Architecture - 1996

EDUCATION

Master of Science in Real Estate, Georgia State University, 2004.

Master of Science in Community and Regional Planning,
University of Texas, 1996.

Bachelor of Arts, Kenyon College, 1993.